Notice CRP-413

For: State and County Offices

2002 National Haying and Grazing of CRP Acreage

Approved by: Deputy Administrator, Farm Programs

1 Overview

A

Background

The Food Security Act of 1985, as amended, section 1232(a)(7) authorizes, in the case of a drought or other emergency, the Secretary to permit "emergency" haying and grazing of CRP acreage.

There are widespread weather-related disasters in the country, and all or a significant portion of States are suffering from widespread disasters.

Severe weather conditions during 2002 have depleted hay supplies and affected the growth of hay and pasture in calendar year 2002.

Because the severity of the damage is widespread, FSA has made all States eligible for CRP emergency haying and grazing. However, because in some States only a portion of the State is severely affected by ongoing drought or excessive moisture, FSA has delegated authority to its STC's to limit the area within the State where emergency haying and grazing are authorized.

Donation of hay, haying, or grazing privileges to livestock producers in dire need because of this emergency is encouraged. This action will provide immediate relief for livestock producers suffering from low livestock prices and a scarcity of available hay and forage.

C

General Information

STC's shall review conditions and document their determination of a compelling need for haying or grazing in their State.

State Offices shall not submit requests for county approval for emergency haying and grazing to CEPD.

USDA has developed a website for producers with "need/have" contact information for livestock producers who need hay or haying or grazing privileges and CRP participants who have hay or haying or grazing privileges available.

CRP participants may file requests for emergency haying or grazing in all counties in all States regardless of weather conditions and production levels.

Producers may not hay and graze the same acreage.

Emergency authorization is effective immediately through November 30, 2002.

States with counties previously approved for emergency haying or grazing shall continue evaluating conditions to determine whether continued haying or grazing is warranted.

Haying and grazing privileges may be used at a producer's discretion within the limitations of this notice.

CRP participants may donate, rent, or lease hay, haying, or grazing privileges to any livestock producer in need.

Within the area authorized by this notice, CRP participants donating hay, haying, or grazing privileges to a third-party livestock producer with a compelling need shall not be assessed the 25 percent payment reduction.

Participants haying CRP shall be limited to 1 cutting.
